

Computational Methods C++ Assignment

Augustin Reille

2 November 2017

Contents

Abstract

In this assignment we were asked to examine the application of numerical schemes for the solution of partial differential equations as discussed in the Computational Methods lectures, using C++ Object Oriented and other programming practices discussed in the C++ lectures.